

Sirs: Never has ONE media outlet been so acceptable to EVERY member of my family. 11yr (boy) and my 15yr (old) girl can argue about what music to listen too for "oh sooooo long". When we intrupt the argument with K-LOVE all are content. The effect on my community would be to disband a core group. K-love stickers on car-windows immediatly indicate a common bond between neighbors. To disband k-love in favor of a common LPFM would mean just another pop music format that I , as a parent, would never consider an alternative as I do with K-LOVE. The service K-LOVE provides is a soothing background to a often busy, busy hetic pace. Mark my work. I will not listen to another LPFM format. I WILL switch to CD.
